DEL MAR, CA (Thursday, June 10, 2010) – The Friends of the Powerhouse has a busy spring and summer planned with events designed to help the organization raise funds for the much-needed new Lifeguard Tower & Beach Safety Center. The community is invited to these wonderful events on the beach.

A new family fun affair, the Tiki Torch Beach Barbeque & Tile Painting Party, will debut on Sunday, June 27, 2:00-7:30pm. Tile painting will be held at the lifeguard tower parking lot from 2:00-5:00pm. Following the tile painting, will be a barbeque on the beach catered by Phil's Barbeque from 5:30-7:30pm. Enjoy delicious barbeque chicken or pork sandwiches, cole slaw and baked beans for only $15 per plate. In addition to great food, a beer and soda station will be available, as well as live steel drum music.

Tile painting opportunities will be offered four other times during the spring/summer. Purchase an artist designed tile or paint your own on July 3, July 11, July 24 or August 1. Times for all four dates are between 11:00am-3:00pm at the lifeguard tower parking lot.

Tiles measuring 4" x 4" are priced as follows: 1 for $40, 2 for $75, 3 for $100 and 4 for $130. Family size tiles have been added for this event; they measure 8" x 8" and cost $150 each. Bricks can also be purchased for $250 and inscribed with a personal message.

The Party For The Tower, a midsummer night of fun and frivolity, returns on August 4, 6:00pm at En Fuego in Del Mar. Limited tickets, priced at $45, are available for this annual event. The evening includes a buffet dinner, no-host bar and a terrific live auction.
